

FLAMENCO COMMUNICATION WORKSHOP APRIL 9-11

After another very successful workshop in Atlanta this past fall, Marija Temo now returns to give you the chance to once again expand your flamenco knowledge. Marija is broadly recognized as a classical/flamenco guitarist, flamenco singer/dancer and conductor. The workshop covers a variety of subjects including one of the most important aspects of flamenco: the art of communication between the flamenco performers; singers, dancers and guitarists. This workshop covers Soleá por Bulerías.

"One of the few female solo flamenco guitarists in the world" - Televisions, Good Day New York.
"Her intelligence, natural intuitive ability combined with a passion and love of music places her among those exceptional interpreters of our time." - Soundboard, National Guitar Magazine, Guitar Foundation of America For more information about Marija visit www.marijatemo.com

Note! No flamenco dance technique, choreography or guitar falsetas (melodious guitar parts) will be taught. The focus is on the communication part only, which is the true essence of a flamenco performance. However, flamenco shoes for dancers are required, skirt is optional.

All classes will focus on the improvisational communication between dancers, guitarists and singers. We will learn how to recognize, follow, and lead, the certain parts of which the Soleá por Bulerías is constructed, such as e.g. salida (beginning/ending), letra (vers), falseta, and escobilla (footwork). Please bring note pads and/or recorders.
